Almighty Father, whose dear Son, on the night before he suffered, instituted the Sacrament of his Body and Blood: Mercifully grant that we may receive it thankfully in remembrance of Jesus Christ our Lord, who in these holy mysteries gives us a pledge of eternal life; and who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Reader A reading from the Book of Exodus (12:1-14).

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household. If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbor in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats. You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight. They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs. You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn. This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the passover of the Lord. For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the Lord. The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt. This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

- 17 In the courts of the /Lord's house, * in the midst of you, O Je/ru/salem.

Reader A reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Church in Corinth (11:23-26).

I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

"Where charity and love prevail"

Hymn 581

The people stand

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John (13:1-17,31b-35).

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean."

After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord--and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

“Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come.’ I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

Sermon

The Rev. John Adams

Footwashing

After a brief introduction, the Celebrant invites all those who wish to participate in footwashing to come forward; it is recommended that you remove shoes and socks before leaving your pew, you will first sit down and have your feet washed, and then you will stay to wash the feet of the next person in line, after which you will return to your pew.

(Hail, true body born of the Virgin Mary, who truly suffered, sacrificed on the Cross for man, whose pierced side overflowed with water and blood, be for us a foretaste in the test of death.)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. For our sins he was lifted high upon the cross, that he might draw the whole world to himself; and, by his suffering and death, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who put their trust in him. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Celebrant and people

Hymnal S 124

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant

Kneeling or standing

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and people

Hymnal S 132

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and people

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Hymnal S 153

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All baptized Christians are invited to receive at the altar rail, kneeling or standing. Gluten-free wafers are available by request. If you do not wish to receive communion, you may come forward and place your arms across your chest to receive a blessing. After receiving the bread, you may choose to consume the bread and take a sip of wine from the chalice or hold onto the bread and intinct (dip) it into the wine, in which case please hold the wafer in front of you so the chalice will know to bring you the intinction cup. You may also decline to receive the wine (as the bread in itself is full communion), in which case if you remain at the altar rail please place your arms across your chest to signal the chalice. Those who cannot or prefer not to come forward may inform an usher, and the Celebrant will come to you.

Communion Chant: This cup is the New Testament 1 Corinthians 11, Psalm 23

Communion Hymn Pange lingua Hymn 329

Once all have received, the celebrant says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and people, kneeling or standing

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members
of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.

Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Celebrant Bow down before the Lord.

Almighty God, we pray you graciously to behold this your family, for whom our Lord Jesus Christ was willing to be betrayed, and given into the hands of sinners, and to suffer death upon the cross; who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

Stripping of the Altar

In preparation for Good Friday, the Altar Guild and Celebrant will strip the altar. While they are doing so, the congregation says

- 1 My God, my God, why have you for/saken me? *
and are so far from my cry and from the words of /my/ distress?
- 2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not/ answer; *
by night as well, but I /find/ no rest.
- 3 Yet you are the Ho/ly One, *
enthroned upon the praises of /Is/rael.
- 4 Our forefathers put their trust /in you; *
they trusted, and you de/li/vered them.
- 5 They cried out to you and were de/livered; *
they trusted in you and were not /put/ to shame.
- 6 But as for me, I am a worm and /no man, *
scorned by all and despised /by/ the people.
- 7 All who see me laugh me /to scorn; *
they curl their lips and wag their /heads, /saying,
- 8 "He trusted in the LORD; let him deli/ver him; *
let him rescue him, if he de/lights/ in him."
- 9 Yet you are he who took me out of /the womb, *
and kept me safe upon my /mo/ther's breast.
- 10 I have been entrusted to you ever since I /was born; *
you were my God when I was still in my /mo/ther's womb.

- 11 Be not far from me, for trouble/ is near, *
and there is /none/ to help.
- 12 Many young bulls encir/cle me; *
strong bulls of Bashan /sur/round me.
- 13 They open wide their jaws /at me, *
like a ravening and a /roar/ing lion.
- 14 I am poured out like water; all my bones are out /of joint; *
my heart within my breast is /melt/ing wax.
- 15 My mouth is dried out like a pot-sherd; my tongue sticks to the roof of /my mouth;
and you have laid me in the dust /of/ the grave.
- 16 Packs of dogs close me in, and gangs of evildoers circle a/round me; *
they pierce my hands and my feet; I can count /all/ my bones.
- 17 They stare and gloat o/ver me; *
they divide my garments among them; they cast lots /for/ my clothing.
- 18 Be not far away, /O LORD; *
you are my strength; hasten /to/ help me.
- 19 Save me from /the sword, *
my life from the power /of/ the dog.
- 20 Save me from the li/on's mouth, *
my wretched body from the horns /of/ wild bulls.
- 21 I will declare your Name to my /brethren; *
in the midst of the congregation /I/ will praise you.
- 22 Praise the LORD, you that /fear him; *
stand in awe of him, O offspring of Israel; all you of Jacob's /line/, give glory.
- 23 For he does not despise nor abhor the poor in their poverty;
neither does he hide his face /from them; *
but when they cry to him /he/ hears them.
- 24 My praise is of him in the great as/sembly; *
I will perform my vows in the presence of those who /wor/ship him.
- 25 The poor shall eat and be satisfied, and those who seek the LORD shall/praise him: *
"May your heart /live/ for ever!"
- 26 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to /the LORD, * and all the families of the nations shall /bow/ before him.
- 27 For kingship belongs to/ the LORD; *
he rules o/ver /the nations.

- 28 To him alone all who sleep in the earth bow down in/ worship; *
all who go down to the dust fall /be/fore him.
- 29 My soul shall live for him; my descendants shall /serve him; *
they shall be known as the LORD'S /for/ ever.
- 30 They shall come and make known to a people yet /unborn *
the saving deeds that /he/ has done.

*After Our Lord celebrated this meal with his disciples,
He went to the Garden of Gethsemane to pray and be captured.*

After the Stripping of the Altar, you are invited to stay as long as you wish and then leave in reverent silence.
